Learner Development Camp

An educational camp that provides a hands-on, fun-filled experience of the environment.

Traits such as ambition, energy, motivation and self-confidence will be enhanced within the learner.

A silhouette of a person wearing a helmet and riding a bicycle, set against a dramatic sunset sky with orange and red clouds. The person is positioned on the right side of the frame, facing left. The bicycle is a mountain bike with a large front wheel and a smaller rear wheel. The background is a bright, glowing sun partially obscured by clouds, creating a strong backlight effect.

The camps will be presented on different levels of difficulty because of the different grades of learners.

What is the benefits of this camp?

- Gaining skills, such as goal-setting, problem-solving and sound decision-making
- More awareness of how to apply learning to new problems and contexts
- Reflective thinking skills that can strengthen academic performance
- Developing the positive attitudes
- Greater understanding of yourself and others
